{ Received the assent of the President of India on the 22nd June, 1961 and first published for general information in the Punjab Government gazette (Extraordinary), Legislative Supplement, of the 8th July, 1961 }

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to Co-operating Societies in the State of Punjab.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Punjab in the Twelfth Year of the Republic of India as follows:-

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS:

In pursuance of the policy of the Government of India to simplify Co-operative law and procedure in order to remove all bottlenecks in the way of development of co-operative movement in the country, it has become necessary and incumbent to amend the law regarding co-operative societies in the State. In this Bill the approach has been to make the law as simple as possible. The important provisions, such as relating to change of liability, amalgamation of societies, splitting up of societies, settlement of disputes and winding up of societies, etc. were found to be of a dilatory and complicated nature, and, therefore, creating problems in the day to day working of the cooperative societies. Special care has, therefore, been taken to cut out all unnecessary delays particularly in registration of societies and the provisions to this effect have been simplified. Another approach influencing a change is to make the Co-operative Law comprehensive and growth of the co-operative societies in the various fields of economic activity, more difficult and complicated forms of cooperative societies are to spring up as compared to Cooperative Credit Societies. To meet the situation a number of new provisions have been made in the Bill. The notable changes, inter alia pertain to conditions of registration, qualification of members, management of societies , nominees of Government on the committees, suppression of committees, charging of immovable property of members, borrowing loans from certain societies, deduction from salary to meet the society's claim in certain cases. Cooperative Education Fund, audit surcharges, appeals, offences and penalties etc. (Vide Punjab Government Gazette Extraordinary , dated 24th October, 1960, p.040.
