PART - II

(Reading)

2. Read the following passage and answer the questions given below:

Language is a wonderful gift given to man except a new born dumb. Language is mostly associated with the mind. It is the mind that coordinates the speech organs- throat, tongue, lips and teeth. No animal possesses this gift, but they have their own way of expressing themselves. When a rabbit sees an enemy, it runs away into its hole. Its tail bobs up and down when it runs. The other rabbits see it and they run too. They know that there is a danger. When a cobra is angry, it raises its hood and makes itself look fierce. This warns other animals. When a bee has found some food, it goes back to the hive. It cannot tell the other bees where the food is by speaking to them, but it does a kind of dance in air. Some animals express their feelings by making sounds. A dog barks when a stranger comes near. Some animal trainers have tried to teach chimpanzees to talk, no chimpanzee has ever managed it. To do this, they would have to have our brains.
